FOREWORD

Just as Janus kept his eye on the Past and the Future, the students and faculty of W. P.C.S. keep their eyes on past activities and future success of education and expansion of the school. The editorial staff of the 1960 Maroon and Gold has kept a watchful eye on school activities and has set down a pictorial record of all of them.

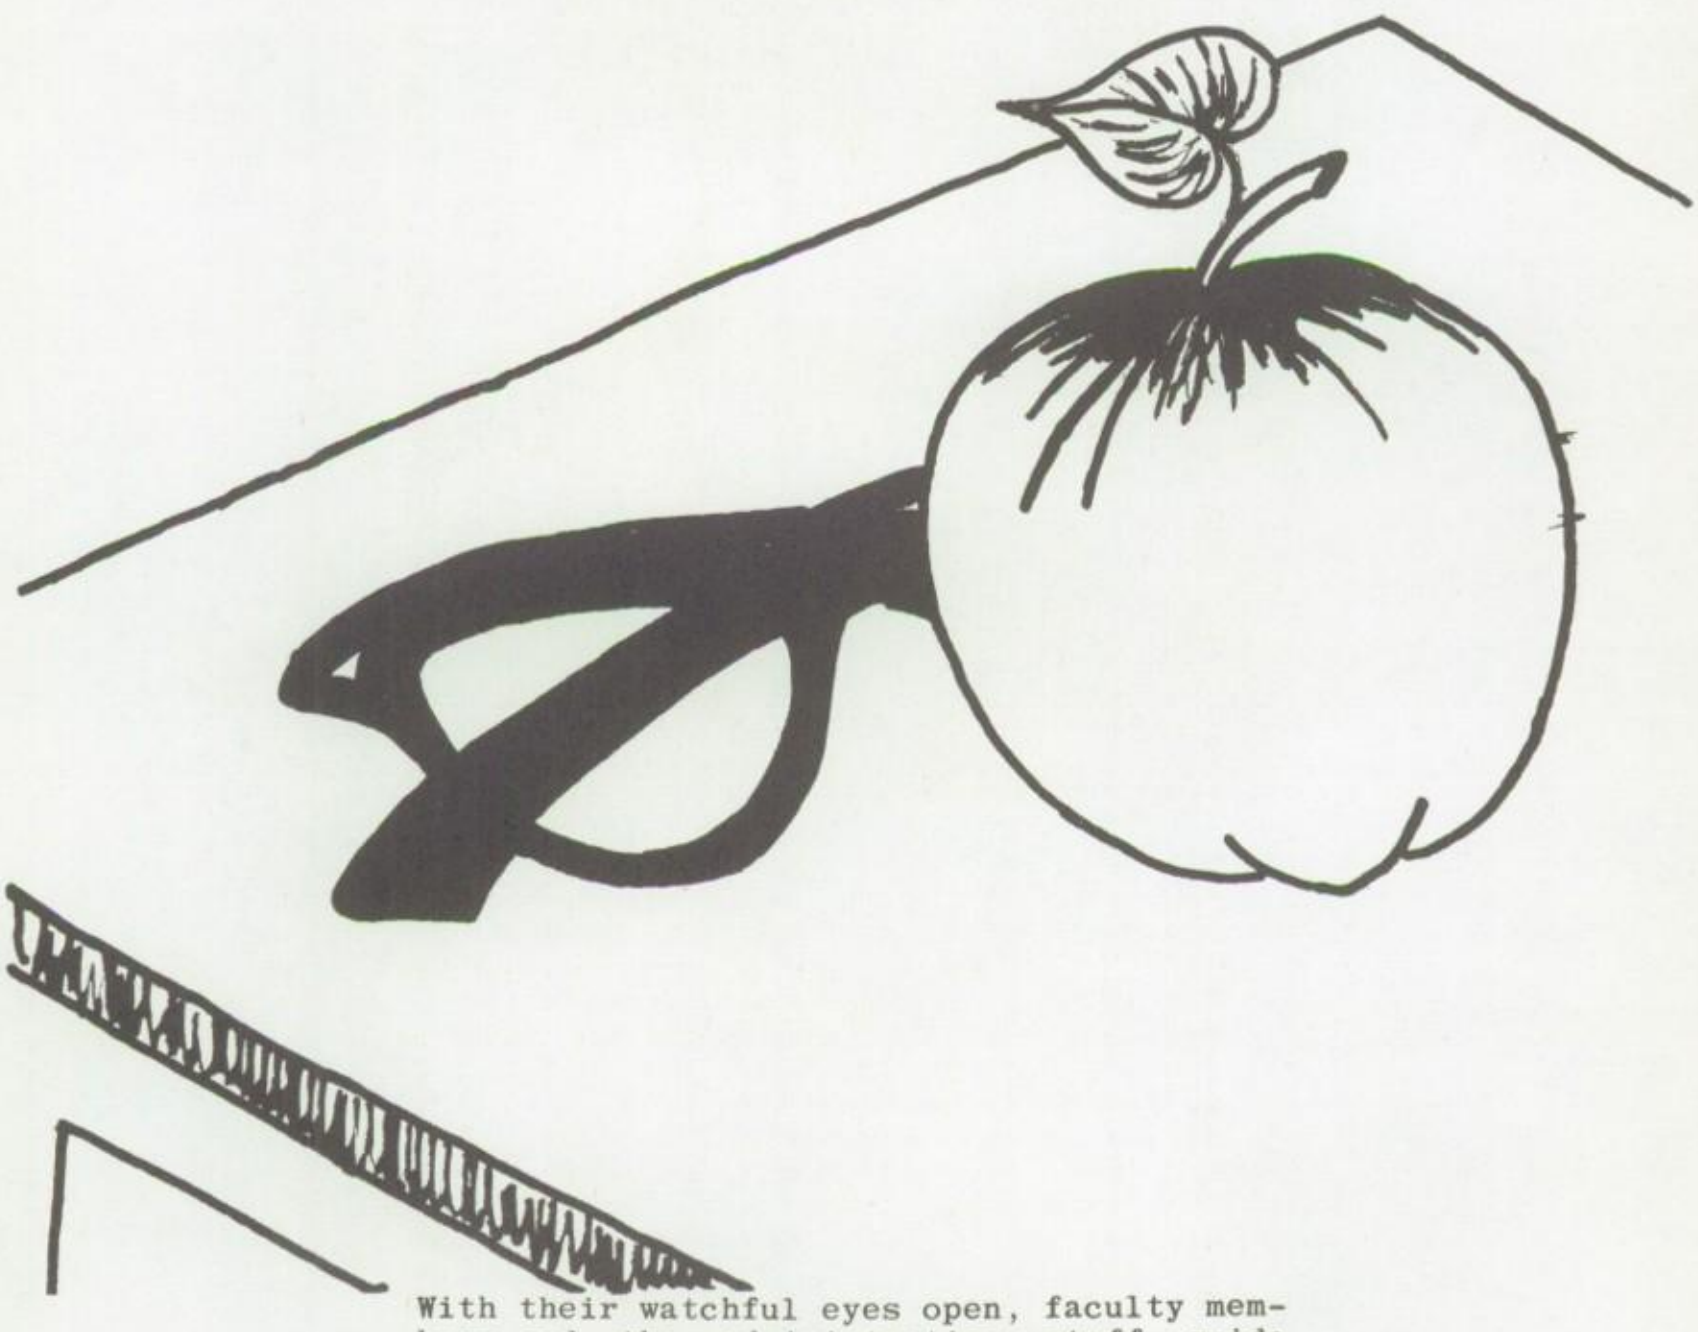
DEDICATION

Mrs. Clara Rozelle, a veteran teacher at W.P.C.S., resigned her position as a teacher in the fifth grade November 6, 1959. Mrs. Rozelle taught at Whitney Point from 1935 to the time of her resignation. Her first job was in Putnam County in 1913, with a salary of $396 a year. She graduated from New Paltz Normal and has taught 43 years and 7 months since then. Mrs. Rozelle's key to success has been, "Love your children enough to make them mind." Mrs. Rozelle now makes her home at Lisle. This past winter, however, she spent at Fort Pierce, Florida.

FACULTY



With their watchful eyes open, faculty members and the administration staff guide students through the school year.

VICE PRINCIPAL OSMER J. BROOKS

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations on your graduation. It has been necessary for you to work in order to deserve this diploma. Let this be the guiding principle in your life. Work hard and you will receive the gift and gratitude of all people. Use your eyes to take a long look down the past, use them to see where you can fit best into the life of your community, use them to ascertain where you can serve your fellow man, use them to recognize the sore spots in our civilization. And when you have done all this, use your boundless energies to help shape the destiny of our nation to the end that famine, greed, lust, and war are eliminated from our way of life.

A BROOM FOR THE BRIDE

A Broom For The Bride was presented by the Senior Class November 18, 19, 20, 1959. With a great deal of mistaken identity, the play presented a socially pretentious family struggling with the pre-marital problems of their daughter, Linda. Mr. Arnold Newman, Senior Adviser and Senior English teacher, directed the play with the able assistance of Miss Sharyn Lewis, as make-up adviser. Seniors were grateful to Mr. John Knapp, and Mr. Thomas Lawson who helped to make the play a success.

Now ya see, Mr. Brewster, this guy was all tied up in the chair-like you are.

At ease, Gentlemen

Dr. Harper, we're so pleased that Mortimer's dating your daughter.

Arsenic and Old Lace presented by the Junior Class of 1961, April 6, 7, 8, was an extremely humorous play concerning a slightly crazy family. Abby and Martha Brewster were a pair of old ladies who poisoned lonely old men. Teddy Brewster, their brother, was sure that he was Teddy Roosevelt. Their nephew, Mortimer Brewster was planning a honeymoon, but became involved with a mix-up of dead bodies. Miss Sharyn Lewis directed this play and also managed the make-up. Carol Wychick was the able assistant director.

Dr. Einstein, your handkerchief!

Elaine, I can't marry you. Insanity runs in my family-it gallops.

Ass't Director gives directions to stage crew.
